Happy Easter Alliance Family & Friends

Wilbur L. Duncan, National President

It is April and already our 52nd Biennial National Convention is looming large. Before you know it, August will be here and we will all meet in Pittsburgh, PA. We will also realize that NAPFE will be 104 years old in just two months following the convention.

I remind you that if you are attending either as a delegate or a visitor, you must have put in for the time off. The convention runs from August 1- 4, 2017. We hope to see you there. More information is included in this newsletter. Please take time to look it over. Make your registration for the convention and confirm reservations for the hotel at the group rate. Pittsburgh has grown quite a bit over the years and I believe you will enjoy the workshops and whatever the city has to offer its visitors. Come prepared to enjoy the hospitality and entertainment Local 510 is offering.

The National Alliance of Postal and Federal Employees is in an enviable position. We are unique and we have a history. As a labor union, our destiny is pretty much left in the hands of its members. Numbers mean something in this game. We ask that each one, reach one. Each member, bring in a member. Not only does it earn you extra money, but bodies validates the Union. Unfortunately, the reason this union was founded in 1913, still carries a lot of validity today. In some places, it's like we are stepping back in time. The immigrant debacle is not helping the situation either. We certainly have to watch our step.

These are hard times, if you have job, stay on it. Do the job you were hired to do. Don't make it easy for them to dismiss you. There are going to be some tough months ahead. Beware!

I look forward to seeing many of you in at the national convention.

The Desk of the National 1st Vice President

The National First Vice President, Mrs. Janice Robinson sends this message to NAPFE labor representatives about workshops being held in various cities on OWCP. That is the Workman's Compensation Program. This would be a valuable training tool and a rewarding one for the members. These training workshops are free. The exception would be if the Local or District elects to send the rep to the area where the workshops are being held, then the entity would pick up the tab for lodging, etc. The following are some of the cities and dates of where and when the workshops are being held in 2017:
